

LINGHAM'S

A Taste of Malaysia since 1908

Lingham's chilli sauces are present in the world for over 110 years

Lingham's history dates back to 1908, when the world had yet to know about artificial flavours and additives and that is the reason that their original recipe hasn't changed since then.

NO ARTIFICIAL COLOURING NO FLAVOUR ENHANCERS
NO PRESERVATIVES NO TOMATO PUREE/PASTE NO STARCH

Discover Lingham's chilli world and travel with us on a journey of tastes of Asia.

LINGHAM'S GARLIC CHILLI SAUCE

Lingham's Garlic and chilli sauce is a condiment of adventure and gives an extra flavour to the original recipe.

Europeans are more known for their love of garlic. One of the reasons why Lingham's garlic and chilli sauce exists is the fact that the British occupied its territories bringing with them their love of garlic.

This product isn't only an Asian favourite but demanded and sought after throughout the World.

LINGHAM'S SRIRACHA SAUCE

Lingham's SriRacha is a sharp and spicy sauce made from ripe red chillies following a traditional recipe. Distilled vinegar, lots of garlic as well as sugar and salt are added.

The name originates from the coastal city of Si Racha in Thailand, where this type of sauce was first crafted. It's mostly used with seafood as well as grilled dishes and has started to become world renowned.

SriRacha is commonly used as a dip for Thai dishes, seafood, grilled meat, and Vietnamese cuisine. It goes perfectly as a dip with spring rolls and/or a hot sauce on BBQ meats.
